FOREWORD

A college annual is a revelation of personalities, a chronicle of events, a well of memories, and a prophecy for the future. It is an index to a campus, a catalogue of seniors, a roll call of organizations. It is a laurel wreath and a jester's cap. It perpetuates our most earnest endeavors and mirrors our extreme follies. It is a moving picture of each passing year.

Names and Pictures: that is what a college Annual is. The names and pictures are those of college buildings and college men and women—students with the faculty added to complete the picture. We all realize that the buildings would be of little interest were it not for the people connected with them. A college is a group of people gathered together for a commonly accepted purpose: to secure an education. And one of the most important features of an education is association with other people. The volumes of Le Bijou, as they come out from year to year, are a pictorial record of what is of supreme importance in college life — the students and the faculty, who constitute the college, and will be forever changed because of that association of four years within college walls.

—Edmund D. Soper

DR. AND MRS. SOPER

Comfort, hospitality, and good cheer fairly radiate from this picture of Dr. and Mrs. Soper, taken in their home. It is this very feeling of welcome and ease that impresses visitors in the Soper home. As a hostess, Mrs. Soper's gracious and frankly unassuming manner is a pleasing complement to Dr. Soper's geniality. By virtue of her position as wife of the president of the university, Mrs. Soper entertains not only members of the faculty but also students and parents. Hers is the key position in establishing friendly and understanding relation among professors, students, and parents. Dr. and Mrs. Soper through their informal contacts with people connected with the university carry on the justly famous tradition of good fellowship at Ohio Wesleyan.

Guiding the destiny of Ohio Wesleyan University is the all-important function of the Board of Trustees. Members are elected to the board by the alumni or by the Ohio Conferences of the Methodist Church. President Soper is an ex-officio member of the board by virtue of his position as head of the university. Being the legal owners of the college, this influential group meets twice a year to consider policies and suggestions submitted to it at these times by its committees. Among these nine standing committees, which are appointed by the president of the board, are those on investment, development, faculty and instruction, and student welfare. Eight of the groups meet at call while the ninth committee, being the one on investments, meets every two weeks to keep the financial affairs of the university in good order. An executive committee elected by the board of trustees carries on the business of the group in between the semi-annual meetings. To the combined activities of the board and its capable committees is due the efficient and progressive way in which the university operates.

DEANS OF THE UNIVERSITY

There is no need for "shush, here, come the Deans" around Ohio Wesleyan campus. William L. Sanders has the ability to be both a friend and Dean of Men at the same time. He maintains order, tells jokes in Psychology class, and is a perfect chaperon for a dance. He regulates university auto licenses for students' cars and artfully preaches the evils of intoxication.

Dean Sheridan, popular Dean of the College, can also claim office as head of the Department of Education. Dean Sheridan is originator of the much striven for "Dean's List" for lucky students. He listens daily to the pleas of students for petitions of numerous kinds. His own spirit of cooperation places a fine stepping-stone towards an even better student cooperation.

The girls proudly claim Miss Nicholson for their Dean. She is extremely popular among the girls and men. She is gracious at the head of a banquet table as well as in an intimate group of pajama-clad girls. Girls appreciate her active work in establishing more freedom and representation for them on the campus. They enjoy her humor, her companionship, and admire her abilities.

ADMINISTRATIVE HEADS

Administrative heads of the university are those who, figuratively, keep the good ship Ohio Wesleyan afloat. Treasurer Donald J. Hornberger is the custodian of university funds, as well as the man on the throne when students get around to the matter of paying their bills. Allen C. Conger, Registrar, has in his possession the record of each student, and the records of prospective freshmen. He is responsible for fraternity and sorority grade lists, which cause much stir and consternation twice a year. Donald B. Watkins, as Business Manager of the university, does all purchasing for departments and attends to other general business. Russell B. Miller seldom makes himself seen to students, but some realize that he is in a large measure responsible for the size and completeness of the university library. His official title is that of Librarian. Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds is John Hickson, who sees that students are made to "keep off the grass", and who supervises a staff of men who work to keep the Ohio Wesleyan campus a thing of beauty.

SCIENCE

The science department covers a wide range of subjects, dealing with everything from stars to roaring motorcycles. In three departments, astronomy, geology, and botany, Professors Nicolas T. Bobrovnikoff, Lewis G. Westgate, and Claude E. O'Neal are the lone moguls. Professor Edward L. Rice, one of the oldest members of the faculty, is assisted in the zoology department by Dr. William F. Hahnert, who came to Ohio Wesleyan this year from the University of North Carolina. Professor Allen C. Conger, the registrar, also serves as assistant professor under Dr. Rice. The chemistry department is headed by Professor William A. Manuel assisted by Professors Ralph V. Sinnett and Gail R. Yohe. In the physics department Professor Charles W. Jarvis is assisted by Professor Dwight A. Woodbury, while the faculty of the mathematics branch of the science department includes Professors Sidney A. Rowland and Rufus Crane. Charles T. Hiller and Harrison Pells serve as fellows in mathematics and Marvin Cobb fills the same capacity in astronomy.

Founded by Professor William E. Smyser in 1900, the English department has the largest enrollment in the college. As an instructor in English literature, Professor Smyser, as head of the department, is inimitable. After spending his undergraduate days in this university, he served the college as registrar and dean and will always represent the finest of Wesleyan graduates, administrators, and teachers. A graduate of Wesleyan college, Professor Ernest A. Amy has done much to raise the department to the place it now occupies. Miss Ruth Davies' chief interest is in English 101, while Miss Marie Drennan has gained a wide-spread reputation as a teacher of composition. Assistant Professor Ben T. Spencer's chief field of activity is Shakespeare. In addition to composition, Assistant Professor Richard M. Kain teaches comparative literature, while Miss Ruth E. Fickel is interested in romantic prose and poetry. Assistant Professor Walter L. Simmons came to Ohio Wesleyan in 1931, and Harry E. Wood, Jr., joined the faculty this year to offer journalism.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Professor Chester Murray, head of the French department, has been a member of the faculty since 1921, while Paul Huser, a native of Switzerland, taught in many colleges in different parts of Europe before coming to this campus. After graduating from Wesleyan, Misses Florence Avery and Helen M. Parsons, furthered their study in other schools before returning to their Alma Mater as members of the faculty.

Dr. Dwight N. Robinson, the sole sponsor of the "dead languages", graduated from Harvard, where he also received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees, while Professor Omen K. Boring studied at the University of Madrid and then came to Ohio Wesleyan as an instructor in French and Spanish. In 1931 he was made head of the Spanish department. Miss Laura Wagner, assistant professor, attended seven American schools and Centro de Historicos in Madrid.

Professor Paul T. Hahn, who has studied both in Germany and America, and Alfred T. Kehlenbeck, who came to Ohio Wesleyan this year, compose the faculty of the German department.

Dr. Rollin H. Walker, head of the Bible department and the "Grand Old Man" of the university, has for thirty-four years given his life to the betterment of the students of this campus. In addition to his duties as an assistant professor, George W. Hollister is an authority on the Bible and the sacred books of the East, while Miss Goldie McCue is assistant to the Dean and Y.W.C.A. secretary in addition to associate professor in this department.

Having been connected with the Philosophy department for the last four years, Professor Laurence M. Sears is now its head and is assisted by George Beiswanger.

Professor Lester E. Wiley was assistant professor of psychology from 1932 to 1934 when he was made acting head. Before coming to Ohio Wesleyan, he spent several years in research work. Others teaching in this department are Professors William L. Sanders, also Dean of Men, and Edson S. Haven, who came to the campus this year from Denison.

Dr. Wellman J. Warner is the sole keeper of the fort in the field of Social Ethics.

The History department is headed by Professor Henry C. Hubbart who never tires of lecturing on American history, while Professor Hastings Eells is known for his organization of material. Professor Albert E. Suthers and Associate Professor Clifton E. Van Sickle are the other members of the department.

The Economics and Business Administration department is headed by Professor William H. Husband, who also handles school investments. Others in this department are Professor Donald J. Hornberger, the university treasurer, and Associate Professors George L. Hull, Ira D. Anderson, J. Ward Keener.

In the Home Economics department are Professors Bertha E. Titsworth, Frances A. Johnston, and Lila L. Riddell, while the Sociology department is directed by Professor Frank E. August aided by Assistant Professor William L. Leap.

The faculty of the Education department is composed of Professor Harold J. Sheridan, Dean of the College, and Associate Professors Chester O. Mathews, Luther J. Bennett, and Blythe P. Crowl. Professors Ben A. Arneson and William Strachan are highly regarded and well liked for their work in the Political Science field.

Miss Sallie T. Humphreys has been head of the department of Fine Arts since 1920. After being graduated from Ohio Wesleyan, she studied in Washington and then spent one year at the Columbus Art School before returning as a member of the faculty. Others in the department are Miss Mary Rollo, who has studied in France and Italy, Miss Frances Hopewood also a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, and Miss Sybil Gould, instructor of courses in drawing, crafts, and the history of art.

FINE ARTS

Professor Harvey Hewitt, head of the Music department, devotes his time to piano work, while Miss Ella Johnson, who has had wide experience at different universities, instructs would-be organists. Professor Joseph Cleeland takes charge of the voice students and Professor Rexford Keller directs the chapel choir, glee club, and singers' club. Professor Altyn H. Elliott leads the chamber ensemble and university band. William Wells and Faye Finley are instructors in the department.

MUSIC

SPEECH

Since Prof. John T. Marshman became head of the speech faculty in 1920 the department has grown stronger than ever before. With Prof. Rollin C. Hunter in charge of dramatics and Associate Professor W. Roy Diem teaching the popular parliamentary law course and coaching debate, this strength is obvious. Competent assistants are Miss Pearl Lloyd, Mrs. Mildred Stegman, and Instructor Leland Schubert, a new addition to the dramatics staff this year who has already proved his ability by writing and producing the play "Snowball".

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

"Doc" Roberts, the congenial head of the men's Physical Education department, is best known for his courses in hygiene. Assisting him in the department are Director of Athletics, George E. Gauthier, Coach Detrick, Associate Professor Freeman, and Fritz Mackey. The Women's Physical Education department has expanded its field under the leadership of Miss Manchester. Girls may find any course from advanced work for majors under Miss Tarbell to dancing, gymnastics, and archery under Miss Page and Miss Wagner.

The task of hall supervision has been wisely delegated to the Dean of Women and her two assistants. At Stuyvesant Miss Harbage consoles the freshmen coeds and lends dignity and congenialty to the hall's traditional mixers. Monnett is the domain of Miss Nicholson, the popular Dean. Miss McCue's varied interests and activities have endeared her to Austinites. Mrs. Hartman and Mrs. Welch cooperate with the girls at Perkins and Hartuppee respectively. Assisting at Austin and Monnett are Misses Carter and Marshall.

HALL SUPERVISORS

Dr. Blydenburg's biggest problem is to keep the students out of the hospital for whatever reason the latter may wish to gain admission. If the reason is satisfactory, the situation is quickly remedied by the efficient handling of the patient by Misses Kuntzman and Titus and the motherly care of Miss Worline. The unusual success of his preventative measures, however, may be attributable to the frequent treatments of Miss Morris in the Edgar Hall Office or to the doctor's own health advice.

S T U D E N T ADMINISTRATION

Liberalism and constructive advancement have characterized the efforts of this year's enlarged student government. On several occasions the student council called into its sessions the interfraternity and sorority councils, representatives of the administration, faculty, and Board of Trustees. Through these meetings a new spirit of cooperation and coordination were extended throughout Ohio Wesleyan student life.

John A. Eckler

S T U D E N T C O U N C I L

A sane, serious consideration of life at Ohio Wesleyan led to a new note of cooperation in meeting the problems of student government. As student body president, John Eckler presided and was in a large measure responsible for the fine attitude taken by these representatives of the undergraduate students. Serving on the council are officers of the student body; editors of Le Bijou and Transcript; representatives of non-fraternity men and women, W.A.A. and the Athletic Board; University social chairman; and presidents of honorary senior fraternities, the dormitories, Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., and the classes; and W.S.G.A. officers.

A new feature introduced this year was the joint meetings with the Inter-fraternity and Sorority Presidents' Councils, giving the group an even more effective means of expressing student opinion. Among the reforms accomplished were those dealing with chapel attendance, the Elections Amendment, and the induction of the Student Budget commission.

CURRICULUM COMMITTEE

The curriculum committee coordinates students and faculty opinions on new adaptations. It assists in making adjustments concerning classroom attendances, changes in curriculum, and problems of students in selecting their majors.

The student body president appoints a student body election committee each year for the purpose of keeping campus politics clean. Petitions are received, candidates are attested, balloting is directed, and votes are counted by the committee, in student body, class, and special elections.

S T U D E N T A F F

The student affairs office, annex to the office of the Student Deans, has as its purpose the providing of a central information bureau for all student activities, and thereby a coordination of student affairs. The office staff consists of seven sophomores, four juniors, appointed by a student-faculty committee, and the secretary-treasurer of the student body.

Lawrence Young

Secretary-Treasurer

During the past year organization files were started which listed members, officers, requirements, and fees of all campus organizations. Also a file of individual students was established in which the activities of each student in the university are listed with weekly clippings from the Transcript. A survey was made of fraternity expenses on this campus and the results were compared with other schools. A complete history of student government at Ohio Wesleyan was compiled, and certain changes in the present regime were recommended to the Student Council.

At the Council's request, a survey was made of the student budget, which resulted in the creation by the Council of a student budget commission. To provide the student body with pertinent information concerning all campus activities, Guide to Student Activities pamphlets were prepared.

Pictures and biographies of student-body presidents from 1906 to 1935 were placed in order above the office bulletin board, where were also posted copies of all surveys made by the staff, the minutes of executive organizations, student-body amendments, information concerning honorary fraternities, the university calendar, and a graphic chart explaining the membership of the Student Council. All members of the committee co-operated in the work for the student chest drive.

A I R S O F F I C E

Below are the staff members of the Student Affairs Office. Their duties lie in the listing of every undergraduate's activities, as well as the roster of each club. Complete records of these facts are kept in the office, where they are accessible to any person.

The Student Chest Committee is composed of a group of students under the chairmanship of Lawrence Young, whose purpose is to formulate plans for the annual Student Chest drive. The money which is pledged goes to operate such organizations as the Y.M. and Y.W.C.A., and, this year, to start a fund for a commons building.

Mary Iams

President

Women's Student Government, the only organization of which every woman is a member, celebrated its twenty-seventh anniversary on the Ohio Wesleyan campus this year. The officers and class representatives are elected by the women of the university from the student body at large to sit on the two boards, executive and judicial.

The executive board, headed by Mary Iams, president, has again fulfilled its purpose of bettering conditions, improving general conduct, and furthering cooperation between faculty and coeds. The judicial board, guided by Fay Stover, has made both special and regular laws, acted as a court for women offenders, and granted special permissions. Committees dealt with the point system, social activities, traditions and customs, publicity, and vocational guidance.

W.S.G.A. sponsored a Mistletoe tea dance immediately preceding Christmas and a progressive dorm party for the town women. It also cooperated with the Y.W.C.A., W.A.A., and Mortar Board early in the spring in bringing to the campus as a guest speaker Mrs. Eleanor Wembridge of the Cleveland Juvenile court.

One of the chief activities of this organization is planning for and carrying out the events of Monnett Day, the traditional May Day celebration, which includes the crowning of the May Queen, a garden party held in the court between Austin and Monnett halls, and field events. Another event sponsored by the group is the senior breakfast which is served each year at commencement time on Austin porch to senior women.

Miss Theresa Marshall has acted as adviser to the organization and Miss Florence Nicholson, Dean of Women, has been an ex-officio member of the board.

ERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The executive board sets the policies, and plans for the year's activities. It is composed of the executive president, the secretary, the judicial president, and the treasurer of the association.

The judicial board makes the laws, grants permissions, and meets each Wednesday night to impose penalties for infractions of its rules. It is composed of all the officers, class representatives, dormitory and cooperative house presidents.

JUDICIAL BOARD

COMMITTEE OF EIGHTY-EIGHT

The purpose of the Committee of 83 is to gain the interest of desirable students who will be worthy of carrying on the traditions of Ohio Wesleyan University. Its membership comprises students from each of the 88 counties with their county chairmen and students from outside the state. This year the committee is under the supervision of Isabelle Smith and Gerald Kent.

Y O U N G M E N ' S C H R I S

Approximately three hundred and fifty Ohio Wesleyan men are members of the Young Men's Christian Association. They are united by common loyalty to Jesus Christ for the purpose of building Christian personality and a Christian society. The "Y" serves the students in practical ways, yet its primary object is to emphasize the "C" in the Y.M.C.A. Opportunities are presented to aid university men in living noble, useful, and abundant lives. The secretary of the local association is Charles G. Laughlin.

The Freshman "Y" Council was appointed this year by Avery Butler as adviser and assistant. Two freshmen from each fraternity and six independent men compose the council. The president, Robert Ulrich, was elected to guide its meetings. The purpose of the council is to plan programs for meetings, bring speakers from out of town, and to plan the actions of the club. The council met every two weeks, or oftener if it was deemed necessary.

FRESHMAN COUNCIL

Y O U N G W O M E N ' S C H R I S

At the fall retreat held at Greenwood Lake, the Y.W.C.A. cabinet, with Miss Goldie McCue as adviser, formulated the year's program, which includes the committee work, the Wednesday night meetings, and the forums put on in collaboration with the Y.M.C.A. The first project was the International Friendship week. Then Dr. Goodwin Watson of Columbia University was brought to the campus to lead a forum. Later the Y.W. and Y.M. joined to send a group of students to hear Senator Nye's speech on the Munitions' question.

During the second semester the freshman commission, which becomes the sophomore group of next year, was chosen out of the freshmen women who worked with interest on Y.W. committees.

SOPHOMORE COMMISSION

Fred Wilson

Jean Malling

Enter another freshman class—that of '38. And with these freshies came Saturday classes, thinner directories, stricter sorority rushing rules, and chapel just before lunch! Freshmen boosted the enrollment eighteen per cent, and stepped into the Wesleyan activity whirl with a bang. The first-year debate squad enlisted twenty, and Freshmen Players held a membership of forty-nine. Women joined Y.W.C.A. committees readily, and proved enthusiastic followers of W.A.A. The traditional red caps were donned by the neophyte men, but co-eds escaped upperclass humiliation. Among twelve Bijou beauties were three freshmen. Athletic squads were subsequently increased by year-lings. Class elections were held sanely, and Fred Wilson became class president, with Jean Malling as secretary-treasurer.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Mary L. Sandmeyer

A fine catch of lads and lasses, who are trying to uphold the University's ideals of honor, these sophomores returned this fall aiming to take the college world by storm. They contain much variety: brains as well as beauty; athletes and musicians; actors and journalists; artists and home makers are to be found among its members.

Already the Sophomores have made a place for themselves. Many hopes have been fulfilled, and much more will be done in the two years of college ahead. Those days of standing with their mouths and eyes wide open are past, and even though the quarrelly gilt is not all worn off, they have adapted themselves to college life, and are ready and waiting to shoulder it.

With Neil McPhail, president, and Mary Louise Sandmeyer, secretary-treasurer, this class is striving to be the best Wesleyan has ever witnessed, the true aim of every loyal college student.

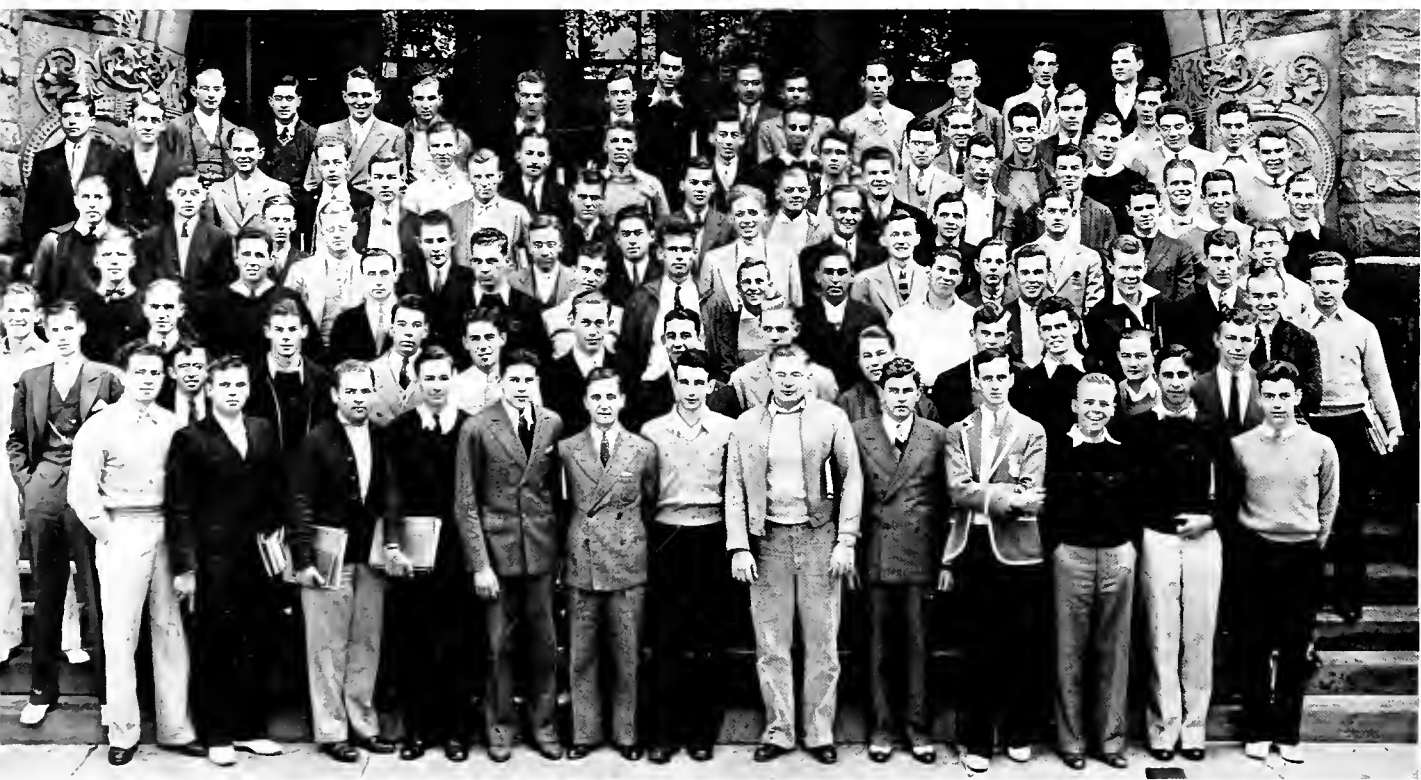

JUNIOR CLASS

Leah Gentle

The class of '36 with its leaders in every representative group on the campus, might stake claims to the state of 'diamonds in the rough'. Within its ranks are beauties who have been the top for three successive years, and also the Greek conclave queen presented in December. The Bishop football, basketball, and other athletic squads were strengthened by many third-year athletes and two men were selected at W.S. G.A.'s Mistletoe dance as outstanding on the campus. Debaters, journalists, artists, musicians, dramatic enthusiasts—all have come forth from the junior mine. The class dug deep into traditional annals for their 'Class Chapel of 1890,' which was presented for the student body. Juniors head the Committee of 88 as co-chairmen. The head liners—Don Mewhort, president and Leah Gentle, secretary-treasurer.

President

THE SENIOR

The Seniors point with amused tolerance to a rather speckled career as underclass men. Sweeping calmly into Stuyvesant as its first occupants, the girls were for a while queens of the campus. But "pride goeth before a fall", and at the Freshmen capping ceremony in Stuyvesant patio the women of the class of '35 bent under the yoke of the upperclassmen. Women's Student Government Association presided at this ceremony and all Freshmen girls were forcibly presented with ill-fitting black berets adorned with generous red W's. Meanwhile the men were running the gauntlet of high power rushing. They emerged the proud possessors of little pledge buttons, only to go down to defeat at the hands of a seasoned Sophomore class in the annual battle between the two groups. Defeated the following year by the Freshman class, the class of '35 distinguished itself as being the only one to lose both Freshman and Sophomore fights. However, the Senior men compensated for their unfortunate start by invading the sacred portals of Stuyvesant after hours and staging a pajama parade. But the class did not use up all their efforts in such hilarious manifestations, for Transcript, Freshmen Players, athletics, and other activities claimed a share of the waking hours of the Freshmen.

CLASS OF '35

In inaugurating a new rushing program, Pannel ruled that women should not be bid to sororities until after spring vacation. Senior girls speak proudly of this year as the one in which fewest pins were turned in.

The Sophomore year found the class of '35 making great progress in athletics, with one of its pigskin toters even mentioned for All-American. Redoubling their efforts the class produced a remarkable group of journalists, actors, musicians, office holders, and Phi Society members. At the end of the Junior year came the consummation of three years of endeavor when eleven women were elected to Mortar Board and twenty men became members of Omicron Delta Kappa. The class as a whole continued to wield power in the various activities.

Mellowed by their four years of training the Seniors gaze benignly on the underclassmen from the hallowed Senior bench. To the Juniors and Sophomores they leave the disciplining of the Freshmen, deigning now and then to add a word of sage advice. They are thinking of graduation, the climax of their college life, which marks the real beginning of the future stretching before them.

GRAVEREAU, VICTOR: Wooster; Education; Ohio Wesleyan Union; Debate.

DETLING, RANDALIN HOWALAND: E. Cleveland; English.

Welfred R. Wellett was killed in an auto accident near his home in Lorain, Ohio on December 26, 1935. A member of the Sophomore class, he had already distinguished himself in many fields of activity. He was a member of the varsity football squad, and on the freshman football and track teams last year. He had been chosen to the freshman Y Council, and the Committee of 88. Alpha Tau Omega was his fraternity.

Our minds are like a potpourri at dusk,
Breathing dead rosemary, lavender and musk;
Things half forgotten, silly things —
sublime!

A faded ribbon, withered rose, a rhyme;
A melody of old Provence, whose lilt
Haunts us as in a dream, like amber, split
God knows how long ago!

Ah, me! what happy days were those!
Gone, with the perfume of the rose.

Might we not yet atone
For all our errors, if we chose?

But—all the perfume's gone.
But—if we've kept the rose will it bloom again?
Perhaps . . . in heaven

Is there a heaven, Doris?
Come and see.

These lines are quoted from "A minuet" by Lois N. Parker, reprinted with permission of Samuel French. The play was read by Miss Kocher from the Chapel platform last year, and given by Dr. John T. Marshman in the Memorial chapel held in September.

Jeanette Kocher entered Ohio Wesleyan in the freshman class of 1931-32, and had not been on the campus long until she was recognized as an outstanding student. During her freshman year, she was chosen one of the six Le Bijou beauties, and was a prominent member of freshman players. In the two succeeding years, Jeanette went on with dramatics having the lead in "When Ladies Meet."

The spring of her junior year she was elected to Mortar Board, and would have been a candidate for Phi Beta Kappa this fall. She had a promising future in music in which she had a great interest, and hoped to combine dramatics with her voice toward a goal of operatic performance. Her most untimely death has deprived Ohio Wesleyan of an invaluable personality.

UNIVERSITY SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The social committee, headed by Charles Naylor, carried through for the student body a well-planned program of campus functions this year. Activities opened during freshmen days with a dance planned to help the newcomers get acquainted with each other.

Following this the committee planned a series of exchange dinners. The first of these was held on October 11 when half the members of designated fraternities went to Stuyvesant and an equal number of freshmen women were guests of fraternities. On October 16 the remaining fraternities complied. Following the success of these dinners, the same plan was carried out, although not so extensively, with the other two dormitories, Monnett and Austin.

As a part of the year's program, the committee sponsored a series of dancing classes for beginners which were held each week during the fall and early winter at Stuyvesant hall. Prof. W. C. Freeman of the Physical Education department instructed the class in the fundamentals of ballroom dancing.

Working through the medium of a sub-committee under the leadership of Charles Campbell, the group sponsored successfully a series of seven varsities, the last of which was the Sulphur Swing, the formal climax of the year.

Conference pennants were much in evidence at the first of the all-college affairs, which started out to be a football dance. The team, however, was conspicuous by its absence.

CHARLES NAYLOR
Chairman

With Homecoming on October 28 came the second varsity, which rated as the "smoothest homecoming dance the campus has seen for years". Mary Emma Emerson was elected by the team to be queen of the dance, and of the Homecoming Program. A parade preceded the Bishop Barbecue which began the activities of the day.

Following the final football game of the season, a ball was held in honor of the players. Music was furnished by Merle Jacobs and his orchestra, and during the intermission the men were introduced to the dancers by Coach George E. Gauthier. Unique was the plan for the registration dance held at the beginning of the second semester. Novel dance programs resembling the registration blanks announced the numbers as the university courses. The presentation of a silver cup to the best campus dancers and gold basketballs to the championship team were features of the fifth varsity held in March. Betty Hutchison was chosen to reign as queen by Coach Detrick.

The first annual Senior Prom was held just before Spring vacation. Clara Bundy as queen, led the grand march with Robert Rybolt, class president. Paul Specht and his prominent dance band furnished the music for this formal occasion.

A varsity in April and then the Sulphur Swing, topped the year's social program. This was the fourth consecutive year for the dance sponsored jointly by Omicron Delta Kappa and the social committee. Pictures of the Swing, held on May 4, appear below.

Sub-Chairman

SORORITY PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL

If your girl won't invite you to the sorority rooms at some time when you think they would be just the place to go, don't blame her, it may be the fault of this organization. The Sorority Presidents' Council is beset with the multitudinous duties of maintaining peace and quiet on the sorority battle front, and in doing this such matters as sorority rooms are only part of the story. The council serves as a tribunal to try and decide, and if necessary impose penalties in cases that arise between its charges.

One of the council's big projects for this past year was an attempt to standardize the point average requirements for initiation into all sororities. Great progress was made in this field and its aim should soon be realized. Cooperation with the Interfraternity Council in the staging of the Greek Conclave was also part of its work.

Such varied problems as these confront this group in its monthly meetings held in the sorority rooms. The dinners are prepared by "the students' caterer" and served by the neophytes of the hostess sorority. Officers for the year were Nelda Darling, president, Charline Jackson, secretary. Dean Nicholson serves as an ex-officio adviser to the meetings.

PAN - HELLENIC COUNCIL

The year 1934-35 is probably the last year of this organization in its well-remembered form. Plans at present for the coming year, indicate an amalgamation of this group with the Sorority Presidents' Council. This change has been instituted by the members of the two groups, who are willing to replace old methods with new and more successful ones.

The major problems of this group have been scholarship and rushing. Each spring they set rules for the time and duration of fall rushing. In handling the problem of scholarship, Pan-Hel gives a breakfast each year for those girls who have raised their general average five-tenths of a point over the previous semester. The council also gives a tea for the mothers and their daughters on Monnett Day.

A unique feature of this organization is the rotation of officers from one sorority to another. The sororities are listed in the order of founding at Wesleyan, and offices handed down in that order. Its membership is composed of the president and one representative from each of the seventeen groups on the campus. Officers this year were Virginia Brown, president, and Sally Spencer, secretary.

Beauty, each without her beast, but men, it's the first real opportunity to make your scientific study of comparative physiognomy. Each group in this extraordinary conglomeration of feminine pulchritude and charm consummates the acme of greek perfection (ask them). What temerity, and such coy looks; enticing? but be careful, sir, remember that a person is known by the company he keeps.

It pays to advertise; four out of five . . . ? ? ? ? . . . Clean-Up week . . . Lost, the seventh step to heaven . . . Who takes the ride for this picture, we wonder . . . Living a life of luxurious leisure at Lakeside . . . Mother's little helpers, or, who stole the Sig Alph step-ladder . . . Who smacked whose sassy face . . . Tried, and true (?) . . . Hope they finished eating first . . . Do you believe in signs? . . . Is this that seventh step?

Advising, chaperoning, and performing the sundry duties of a mother are a group of capable women who watch over the destinies of Ohio Wesleyan's greek coeds. The sorority house mothers are essential features of the school's tradition and do their part to promote and perpetuate Wesleyan's characteristic congeniality. Throughout the year these women are in a unique position to be of assistance to the sorority women on the campus.

Advisers to the different chapters are: Mrs. W. Galleher, Alpha Chi Omega; Mrs. M. Main, Alpha Delta Pi; Mrs. C. Bennett, Alpha Gamma Delta and Zeta Tau Alpha; Mrs. E. Hull, Alpha Xi Delta and Sigma Kappa; Mrs. H. Ziegler, Chi Omega; Mrs. M. Zimmerman, Delta Delta Delta; Mrs. R. Graff, Delta Gamma; Mrs. J. Todd, Delta Zeta and Phi Mu; Mrs. H. Pells, Gamma Phi Beta; Mrs. A. Marriott, Kappa Alpha Theta; Mrs. C. Messick, Kappa Delta; Mrs. H. Core, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Mrs. F. Zisler, Pi Beta Phi; Mrs. H. Eger, Theta Upsilon.

FRATERNITY HOUSE MOTHERS

An often neglected side of Wesleyan social life centers around our own fraternity housemothers, integral parts of a campus-wide housemother system. They bring a "homey" atmosphere to Wesleyan fraternity houses, greet the girls, mother the freshmen, and share with the folks at home the respect and honor of Wesleyan men.

Miss Myrtie Armstrong's 16 year record with Phi Delta Theta leads the group, which includes "Mother" Campbell, Phi Kappa Psi; Mrs. Albert W. Bundy, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Mrs. Barbara Fleck, Phi Kappa Tau; Mrs. T. B. Rybolt, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Mrs. Fred Gleich, Tau Kappa Epsilon; Miss Gertrude Tammen, Sigma Chi; Mrs. Ella Kent, Delta Tau Delta; "Mom" Knapp, Phi Gamma Delta; Mrs. Nettie Greene, Alpha Sigma Phi; Mrs. George Wertz, Chi Phi; Mrs. Mary Harsch, Kappa Sigma; Mrs. Dorothy Main, Ohio Wesleyan Union; Mrs. Mildred Stegman, Beta Theta Pi; and Mrs. D. R. Reider, Alpha Tau Omega.

FIRST SEMESTER INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

These fraternity presidents, delegates of their respective groups, and Dean Sanders comprised the First Semester Interfraternity Council.

The keen competition aroused by fall rushing resolves itself into contested rivalry among the greeks and it is through tactful diplomacy by the presidents that peace and harmony and a sense of cooperation is restored. Meeting as dinner guests of the fraternities on alternate Tuesday nights, the council has had a remarkable record for maintaining equilibrium on the campus. Dean Sanders, delegate for the faculty, was selected to act as president of the council for the first semester.

Through the Greek Conclave, sponsored by the council, national officers of fraternities and sororities were brought to the Ohio Wesleyan campus. Group discussions centered around such problems as: rushing, finances, alumni relationships, and interfraternity relationships. Bill Hann was in charge of the Conclave Banquet and Dance where Dorothy Seiller reigned as Queen.

This group has also met twice upon an invitation of the Student Council to discuss jointly various important campus problems.

SECOND SEMESTER INTER FRATERNITY COUNCIL

With the new semester came a new crew to supervise activities among the masculine Greeks. The second semester Interfraternity Council was composed of the new presidents of each fraternity and elected for its own convenience the following officers: president—George Brengel; vice-president — Branch Rickey; secretary-treasurer — Fleet Dillon.

One change in the organization of the council made Dean Sanders only an adviser to the group and no longer possessor of an office or a vote. This change came at Dean Sanders' own suggestion in an attempt to extinguish the impression that the Interfraternity Council merely exists as one of his pet hobbies.

No set order of business was followed when the council met every other Tuesday night at the different fraternity houses. Discussion centered around problems concerning better cooperation among the Greek groups in forming a well-rounded fraternity life at Ohio Wesleyan. Special projects for this semester were the problems of limiting pledging for fraternities and supporting the Ohio Wesleyan relays.

Praise is due the Interfraternity Council for its effort to perfect the fraternity system at Ohio Wesleyan.

The Triad, resumed after three years interlude (strange?) . . . Keep 'em till they pay, Bun . . . Just a bunch of high hats . . . 100 percent participation . . . The sun has risen, and before breakfast too . . . They aren't all wet . . . All the comforts of home . . . But, if home knew this . . . And of course the Phi Psi's won again . . . The Greek conclave gets under way with a bang-uet.

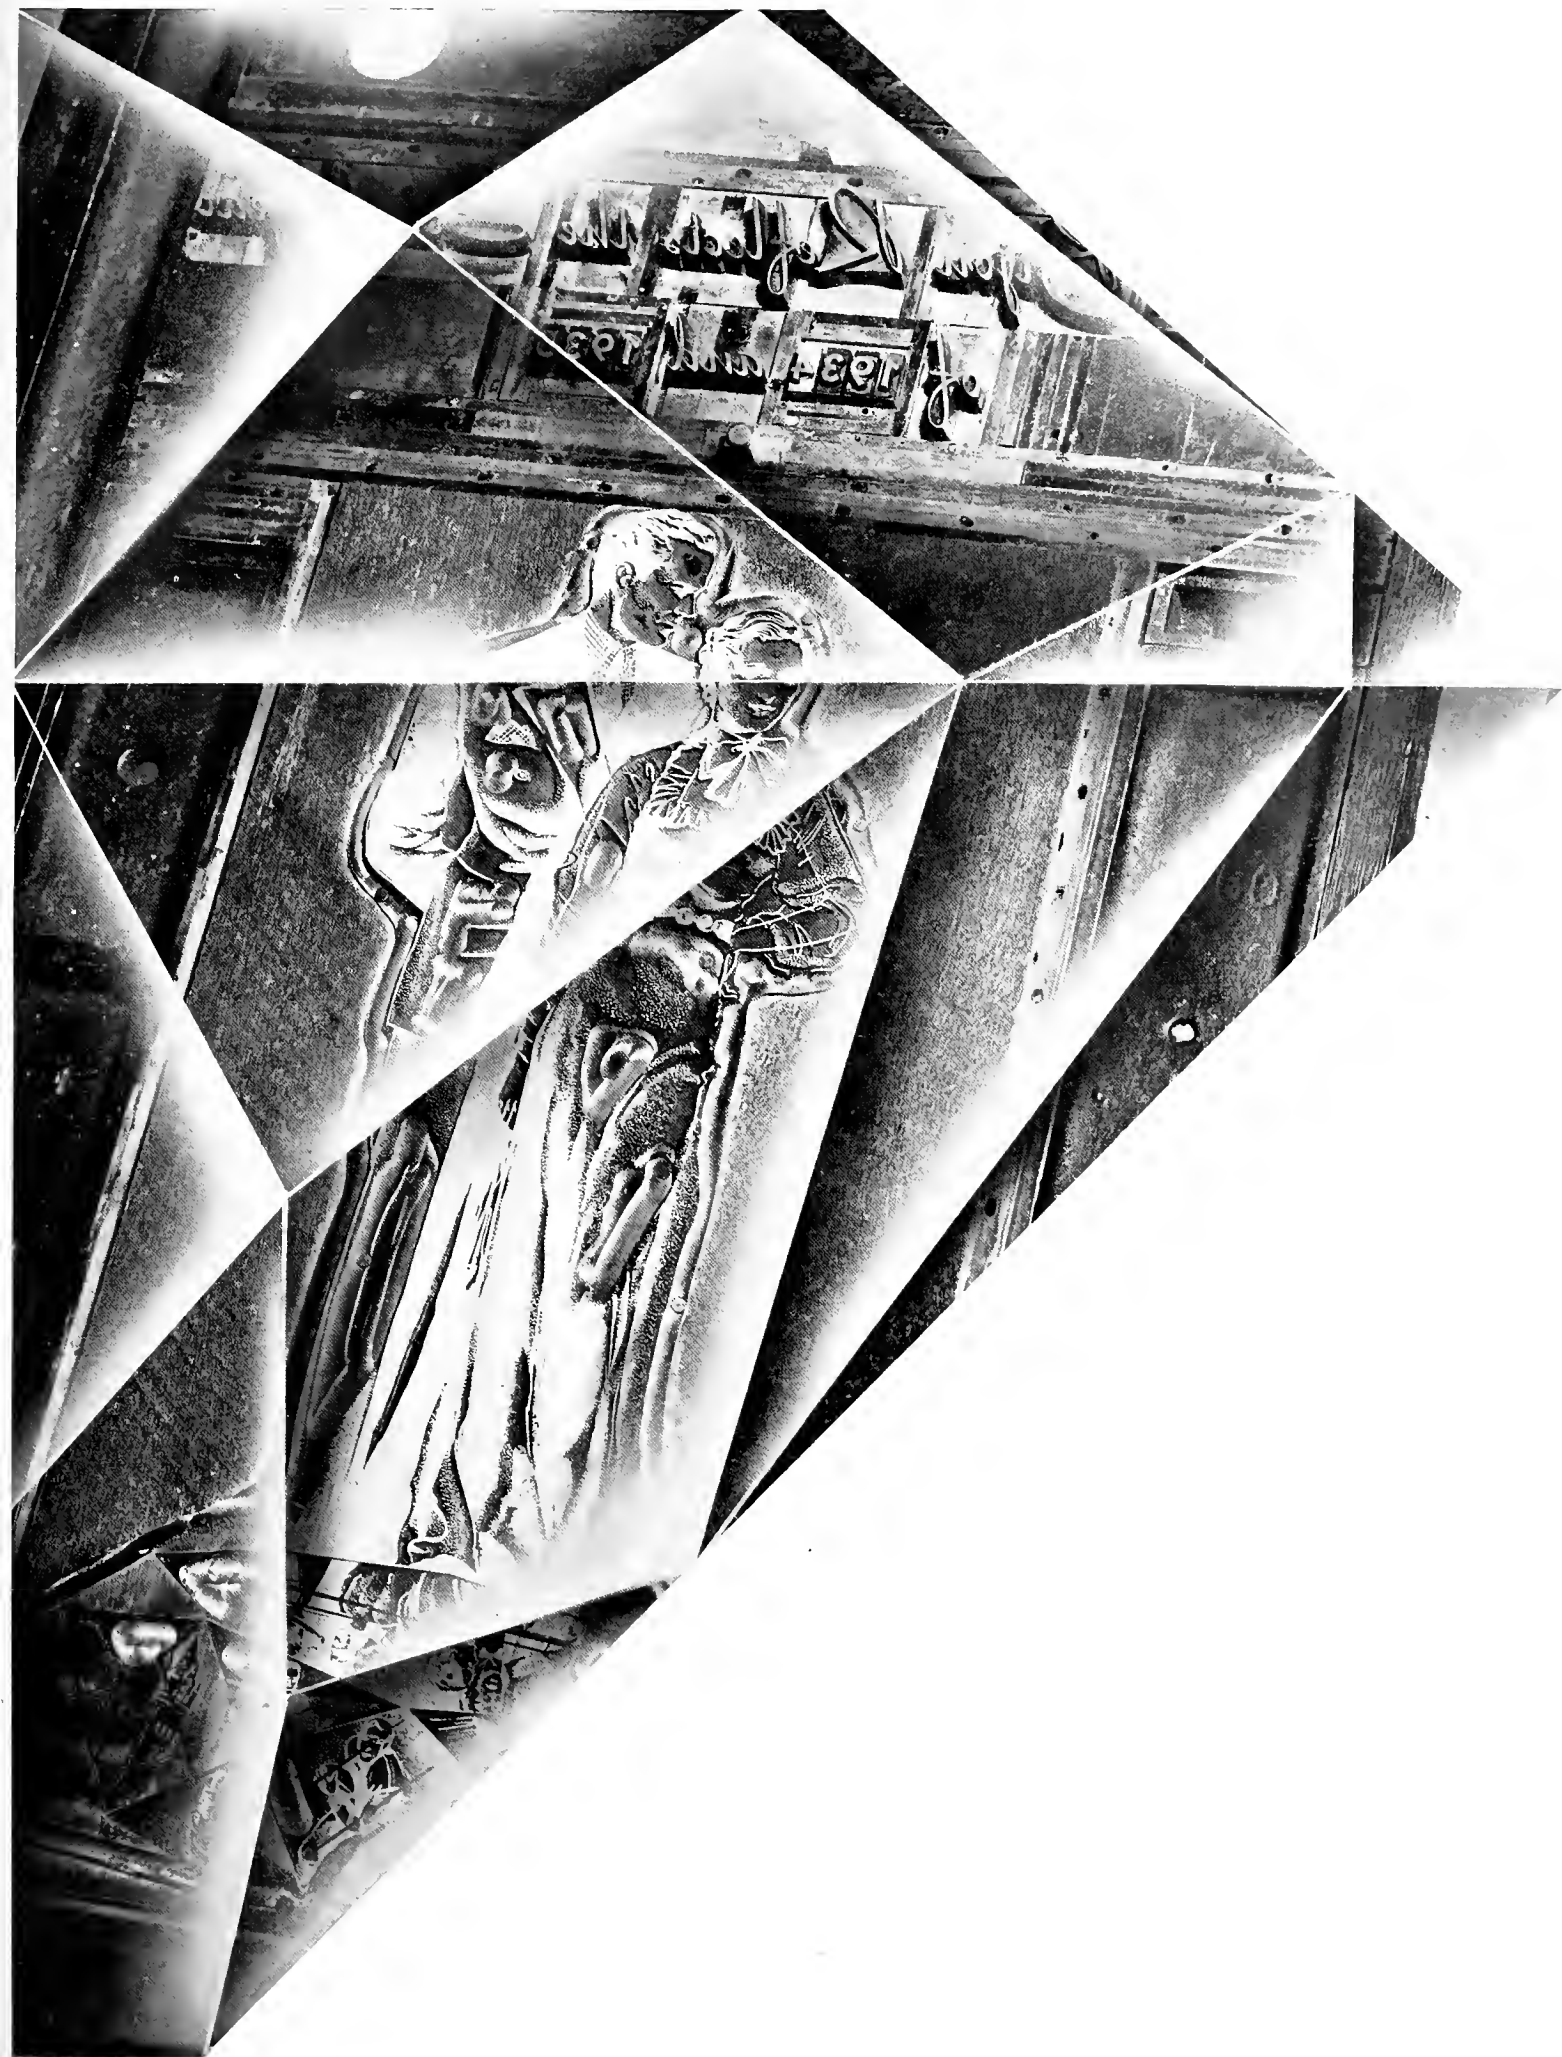

In the upper corner we find the Washington Street boys hanging around Marion's Athletic Club. Next is presented the cannon problem with its "ups and downs". Upon looking further into the matter we see a new bathroom very well guarded on the North by the journalists and the one-man fraternity, on the East by the intramural boys, and on the South by the "home-loving" boys at opposite corners of Franklin and Lincoln Streets.

Mortar Board, the oldest national honorary for women, was introduced to Ohio Wesleyan on May 18, 1929, as one of the fifty-five chapters in leading universities and colleges throughout the country. The members are chosen on the basis of leadership, service and scholarship.

During the year the group held a luncheon and a tea for town alumnae. It also sponsored a tea honoring junior and senior women with high point averages.

The annual Gold Diggers Dance was given to add to the fund of a scholarship for senior women.

Active members are Helen Beal, Carolyn Brogan, Carolyn Clingerman, Virginia Eggleston, Louise Hartman, Sarah Alice King, Rachael McCarty, Georgiana Redrup, Mary Todd, and Virginia Webster. Faculty members include the Misses Bertha Titsworth, Goldie McCue, and Lois Harbage.

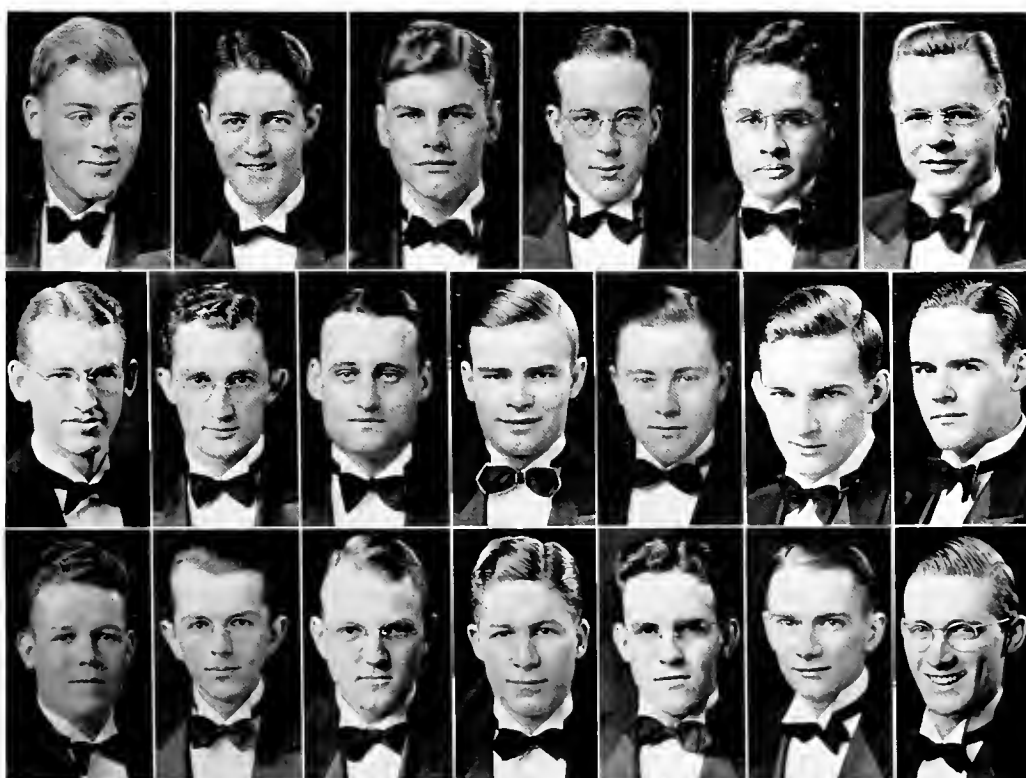

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's honorary founded at Washington and Lee University in 1914, is an organization for service as well as honor. Qualifications for membership are specified in a point system which covers all campus activities. The following officers have held the Ohio Wesleyan chapter intact for 1934-35: Pres.—Herschel Jones; Vice Pres.—Eugene Busler; Secretary—David Austin. Campus problems are discussed at the weekly luncheon meetings held at Bun's. The main projects sponsored this year by O. D. K. include the Freshman-Sophomore fights, smoker for fraternity representatives during the Greek Conclave, and the Sulpher Swing held May 4. Eugene Busler represented the Wesleyan chapter at this year's national convention held at Cincinnati.

Members are chosen from those scholastically in the upper third of home economics majors. Mary Crouse served as president; Helen Enochs, vice-president; Mary Todd, secretary-treasurer; Esther Wright, editor.

DELTA PHI DELTA

Theta chapter of Delta Phi Delta, national art fraternity, which was installed in the Ohio Wesleyan campus in May, 1921, has as its purpose the promotion of art interests among college students and the recognition of ability. Each fall a tea is given for freshmen and in April the members' work is exhibited. Marie Hauck served as president for 1934-1935.

DELTA SIGMA RHO

Delta Sigma Rho, national forensic fraternity for both men and women, was established at Ohio Wesleyan in 1907, one year after the fraternity was founded at the University of Chicago. Ohio Wesleyan was the first scholastic institution to receive a charter. However, chapters were present on many of the larger university campuses.

BOTTOM ROW: Stegman, Keller, Hornby, Diem.

The purpose of Delta Sigma Rho is to promote and support public speaking and to develop and maintain a high standard of intercollegiate debate and oratory. Membership is open to those juniors who have competed in two debates, or in one oration and one debate in two consecutive years, and who have a point average of 1.5. The enthusiasm for debate and oratory on the campus shows that this organization has been active in its achievements. A number of women have taken part in the work of the organization and several women's teams have been chosen to debate other schools in various parts of the country. Arthur Buswell served as president for the current year, while Lillian Keller filled the secretarial post.

Kappa Delta Pi is a national honorary educational society. Its purpose is to advance an interest in social service. It hopes to obtain this goal by supporting high intellectual and personal standards in preparation for teaching, and by recognition of the opportunities in the social field. Qualifications are high scholarship, worthy educational ideals, and adequate personal characteristics. A two-point average in education is necessary for membership as well as grades in the upper quarter for the general curriculum. The society had as speaker, C. J. Colcott, Superintendent of Columbus Schools at one of its meetings during the current year. The Ohio Wesleyan Educational Club, founded in 1917, became the Alpha Alpha chapter of Kappa Delta Pi on November 10, 1923.

PI DELTA EPSILON

Organized on the Ohio Wesleyan campus in 1911, two years after the original chapter was founded at Syracuse university, Syracuse, N. Y., this senior men's honorary journalistic fraternity, recognizes and rewards outstanding work done by collegiate "fourth estaters" and aims at closer cooperation between campus journalists.

Candidates for election must have completed at least two years active work on either the business or editorial staffs of the Transcript or the Bijou.

The chief activity of the organization is the publishing of the Brown Bull, a humorous and satirical book which makes its appearance on the campus each spring. It is edited this year by Don Gable. Paul Gouldin, former editor of Le Bijou, served the group as president during 1934-1935.

PHI MU ALPHA

Phi Mu Alpha, the oldest and largest men's national music honorary, was established here in 1922. Its membership is composed not only of those who participate in campus organizations but also of men who are interested in music. This year the group took trips to Columbus and Mt. Vernon for music concert series.

The honorary musical fraternity for women is Mu Phi Epsilon. The membership is open only to women who have made a 2.00 average in the music department and who have a knowledge of harmony, the history of music, and improvisation.

MU PHI EPSILON

PHI EPSILON K A P P A

Phi Epsilon Kappa, men's physical education honorary, established at Wesleyan in 1930, is the oldest national group of its kind. It takes charge of high school day relays and generally aids the physical education department. Jack Palmer was president this year.

Phi Pi Epsilon, honorary women's physical education fraternity, develops a professional attitude and attempts to maintain high ideals in physical education. Members are chosen from outstanding junior and senior women majoring or minoring in physical education. The president for 1934-35 has been Virginia Eggleston.

Political science majors with a B average and twelve hours of work in the department are eligible to membership in Pi Sigma Alpha, political science honorary. Robert Rybolt served as president of the group for 1934-35 and Clara Bundy, as secretary-treasurer. Professor Ben A. Arneson represented the honorary this year at the national convention held in Chicago.

A great number of the students of Ohio Wesleyan come in contact with the department of Political Science through the well-known G-101 course which Professor Arneson teaches. The general purpose of the course is "to introduce the students to the material of the social sciences and to general social concepts with their historical background".

The terms "American Government" and "State and Local" are familiar to others than the pre-law students, for, although they cannot have a part through voting, the students are interested in learning the structure upon which their government is conducted. Studies of European governments as well as of our own law-making machine afford the student a greater breadth of knowledge and leads to a more exact and understanding interpretation of the various phases of political science.

The department supervises the International Relations Club, an organization for those interested in gaining a better knowledge of world affairs, and Pi Sigma Alpha, the national political science honorary fraternity.

THETA ALPHA PHI

In the spring of 1920 the local chapter of Theta Alpha Phi, national honorary dramatics fraternity, was founded on the Ohio Wesleyan campus. The purpose of the organization is to establish a closer relationship among students who have an interest in dramatics. Not only acting ability, but a knowledge of the technical production of plays is essential for membership. Outstanding members of Wesleyan Players are considered eligible when they have met the requirements based upon a point system.

BOTTOM ROW: Graner, Monahan, Axline, Manley, Williams.

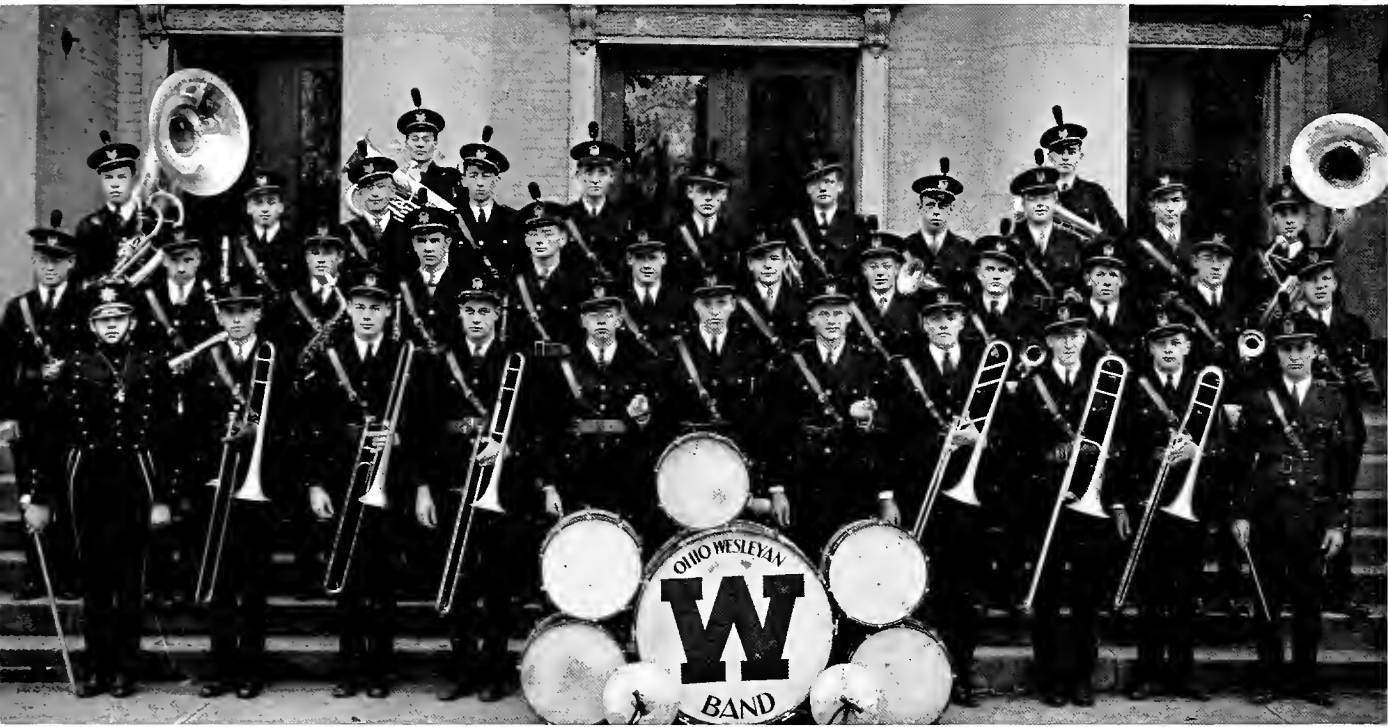

Each year among the major play productions there is one given by Theta Alpha Phi. This year the play chosen was "The Swan", a satirical comedy by Ferenc Molnar, and the leads were taken by Nan Johnson, Hayes Newby, and George Brengel. It was presented at the high school, as have been all of the 1934-35 plays.

Meetings are held once a month to discuss local and general theatrical productions. This organization attempts in every way to assist the Wesleyan Players and the Speech department in furthering dramatics at Wesleyan. Professor Rollin C. Hunter, and Leland Schubert are faculty members, while George Brengel holds the office of president for the current year.

Supplementing the game performances, the band participated in mass meeting programs, in the Home-coming Pep rally, and in pre-game parades. Winter and spring activities consisted in presenting skits for the basketball games, and representation in the Ohio Intercollegiate Band Association's spring festival. This was held in Delaware for the first time. G. C. Bainum of Northwestern University was guest conductor. Officers were: Professor A. H. UNIVERSITY DEBATE

The subject for varsity debate this year has been on the "Control of the Munitions Industry", and its various proposals and consequences have been touched upon from every angle. Numerous debates with colleges in the state were held before high school assemblies to further interest in intercollegiate debate. February 17-25 was the date of the annual men's debating tour which included Marshall, West Virginia Wesleyan, Virginia, Washington and Lee, and American Universities. Arthur Buswell, Eugene Busler, and John Eckler made the trip.

W. Roy Diem
Debate Coach

Donna Hornby, Eleanor Dice, and Ruth Heistand debated the questions of Munitions Control, Federal Aid to Public Schools, and the New Deal with Universities of Pittsburgh, Bucknell, West Virginia and American, on a similar tour this spring.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics club, the largest extra-curricular club, admits any student in the department who is interested enough to take an active part in its work. Besides holding monthly meetings, the club has sponsored several projects including a series of lectures on relief work in Delaware County.

BOTTOM ROW: Cable, Osburn, Kinnison, Polley, Plocher, Goodrich, Manley, Lichtenwalter.

The worth of the Home Economics department is shown in the fact that it is the most popular field for women in the university. Some of the subjects nurtured within the realm of home economics are clothing, dietetics, household economy, foods, costume design, the house, and child development. In connection with the latter, a nursery and play school was set up. The children of the faculty are given a play period, which offers the students an opportunity to get practical experience in observing child development. An innovation this year, it is proving very successful.

Those in the clothing courses present a style show each Monnett Day, while at the end of every year, each member of Foods prepares and serves a budgeted dinner, to which members of the Faculty are invited. For majors in the department, the Home Economics club, and Alpha Alpha Kappa, national honorary furnish further diversion.

SOCIOLOGY CLUB

The Sociology Club, founded by Dr. Coulter in 1932 to serve as a supplement to the Sociology Department, is open to all juniors and seniors majoring in this subject. The increased interest in this group is due to the ever-increasing realization on the part of Wesleyan students of the complexities of social problems and adjustments.

The club constantly strives to foster the acquaintance of those interested in the study of

To make these meetings have more real significance various outside speakers, of renown in their respective fields, are asked to speak and lead discussions pertaining to representative sociological problems. Some of the speakers for this year have been Dr. Samuel S. Wyne, city engineer of Columbus; Mr. Fred Thomas, head of the Family Welfare Department of Ohio State; and Mr. A. L. Cramer of the Ohio State Relief. This organization was under the direction of Ralph Burns, president, Margaret Beamer, secretary.

LE BIJOU

In 1870 the members of the Junior class published a small book of names and pictures which they called "The Chain". Since that time there have been thirty-six volumes, not all of the same name surely, but all of the same significance: a pictorial review of Ohio Wesleyan life. These were first called Le Bijou in 1903.

Every year, the editor and business manager try to overshadow the efforts of their predecessors, but each time this is harder to accomplish. Ohio Wesleyan is regarded as the home of the very latest in year-book production—a fact which few students realize, but which is an actual truth.

Tryouts from the sophomore class start work in the fall of the year. They work for the entire year under the leadership of the editor and business manager, to learn the ins and outs of yearbook publishing. In the spring, elections are held to elect the new officers. The board bases its decision on the number of hours spent in the work, the type of work produced, attitude, experience, and scholarship. The publications board consists of Professors Hull, Amy, and Conger, as well as the Junior staff.

The editor of this book was Clarke Fauver, the business manager, Cecil Hill who unfortunately was confined to his home during the second semester because of illness.

Journalism was introduced into Ohio Wesleyan in 1867 by the Western Collegian, the three editors of which were elected in 1868, thus permanently establishing the newspaper. In 1874 the name became The College Transcript, and senior women of the female college were added to the staff. It was changed from a weekly to a bi-weekly in 1891; in 1902 staff elections were put on a competitive basis. The name was changed to the Ohio Wesleyan Transcript, and a board consisting of seniors and certain faculty members chose the officials.

Homer Davies and a staff of one hundred published fifty-four issues of the Transcript in 1934-35. Senior editors voted a reorganization plan to abolish the present issue editor system, involving overwork for juniors, and to distribute senior staff functions more equally.

TRANSCRIPT BUSINESS STAFF

Senior board positions in accordance with the reorganization include editor-in-chief, managing, departmental, society, sports, and two news editors. Women's editor has been abolished, and the society editor is to be chosen from the members of the junior society staff. Six junior issue editors will serve alternately as copy and make-up editors next year. Dick Darrow will succeed Homer Davies as editor-in-chief of the publication.

The business staff of this year's Transcript was headed by Charles Hamilton, business manager. At his command were a circulation manager, an advertising manager, and a women's business manager. Numerous underclassmen compete for these positions, and elections to them are held in the late spring.

Marking its seventh successful year on the Ohio Wesleyan campus, Orchesis, the honorary women's dance organization, sponsored the appearance of Martha Graham, celebrated modern dancer. The presentation of Miss Graham spelled triumph for Orchesis and offered an interesting contrast to last year's presentation of Ted Shawn and his seven male dancers. Having as its purpose the furthering of interest and enjoyment in the Dance among college women, Orchesis meets weekly during the school year to afford its members an opportunity for creative and interpretive work in dancing. As a culmination of the year's work, Orchesis presents the annual dance drama in the spring, one of the outstanding features of Monnett week-end.

The purpose of the Press Club is to foster journalistic activity and a greater interest in the fourth estate, and for this reason holds the attention of nearly all journalistic enthusiasts in school. Any member of the Transcript, Bijou or Babbling Bishop staffs is eligible for membership. The meetings of the Press Club are held monthly at which time an attempt is made to bring experienced journalists as outside speakers.

These speakers interest those present with topics ranging from "Advice to the Lovelorn", "Paris Fashions", to the "World Peace Conference". Editors of small town weeklies are mixed with staff members of the large city dailies to vary the prospective. The past year, Paul Jones presided at the meetings, with Stan Reed acting in his absence. Janet Spiker was secretary-treasurer.

The Singers' Club, directed by Rexford C. Keller, added much to its prestige this year in its home presentations. A concert of Christmas music in December, the rendition of the "Messiah," and chorus work in "H.M.S. Pinafore" in May were high spots in the season's accomplishments. Of the total membership of one hundred and twenty, fifty picked men and women made trips to Mt. Vernon and Dayton where they were exceptionally well received in church concerts. "Elijah", Mendelssohn's renowned oratorio, is to be presented at Commencement, and will be dramatized next year with the aid of several soloists. Officers this year were Francis Robertson, manager, Helen Lewis, secretary, and Charles Campbell, president.

Plans are being laid for a male operatic production to be staged by the glee club next year in addition to their customary home concert. Freshman Players consists of freshmen interested in Thespian work chosen early in the fall following tryouts. They usher at the plays presented by Wesleyan Players, work on stage crews, and present a play each spring. Officers this year were Charles Copenhaver, president; Dorothy Wulff, secretary.

O. W. U. DIRECTORY

The student directory, published by Bob Nevin and Georgiana Redrup, appeared this year as a thinner, and more narrow book. Men living in co-op halls were listed in the fraternity section. Tan booklets printed in the fall were followed by red and black revised editions in March.

BABBLING BISHOP

Ohio Wesleyan's first attempt at a genuine humor magazine made its debut on the campus at Homecoming. A sixteen page edition, five times a year is the aim of the staff headed by Paul Gouldin, former editor of the Bijou, who hopes to make the Babblers a permanent part of Wesleyan's journalistic family.

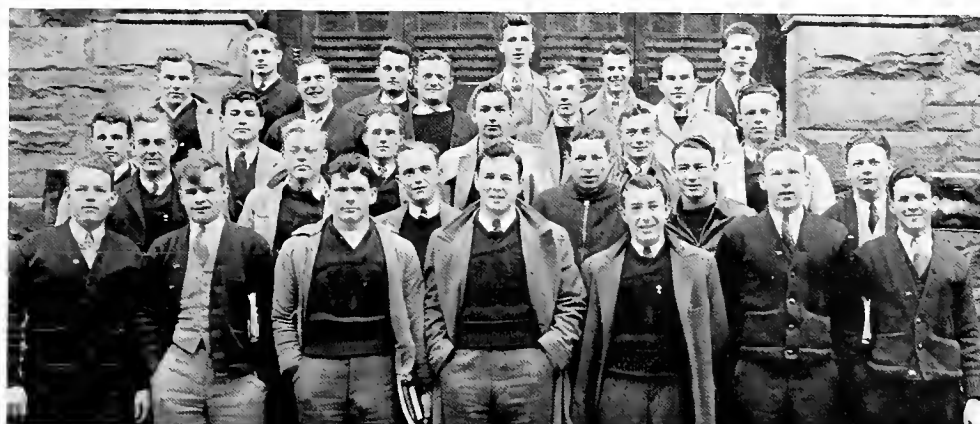

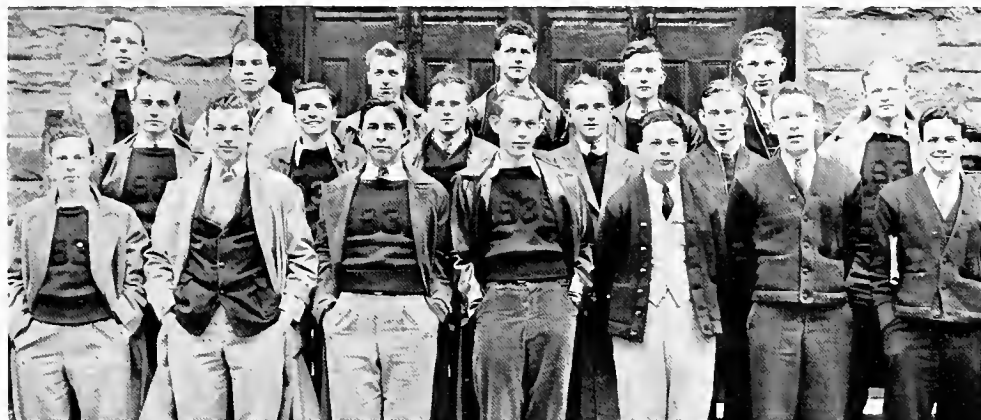

The Red Circle, an organization of men's athletic managers, meets once a month at a luncheon meeting. Its purpose is to consider ways and means of improving the handling of athletic sports. The managers look after the visiting teams and have charge of the equipment and rules at games and practices.

The "W" Clan is a men's athletic organization open to all varsity sport lettermen and all members of the university coaching staff. Its purpose is to bring about closer fellowship among varsity lettermen, to improve conditions in athletics, and to make suggestions to aid in conducting athletics.

COACH GEORGE E. GAUTHIER

The "Little Giant" of Ohio football is Ohio Wesleyan's gridiron coach and director of athletics, George E. Gauthier. His teams have won for him consistently since he came to Wesleyan fourteen years ago. A bitter loss to Cincinnati was the only factor that prevented his 1934 team from winning the Buckeye conference championship. He is secretary-treasurer of the conference.

ATHLETIC BOARD

Intercollegiate athletics at Ohio Wesleyan are under the direction of a staff of coaches and their assistants. These men are indirectly controlled by the athletic council, composed of the director of athletics, five faculty members and two students. The faculty members are appointed by the president of the university, and the undergraduates are elected by the student body. One man is chosen from each junior class, and holds his position on the board for two years.

This year the board adopted a decidedly liberal program in granting letter awards. Twenty-seven football men received their letters, and ten members of the basketball squad were awarded "W" 's. Gold basketballs were given to the latter for winning the Buckeye conference championship for the second consecutive season.

Members of the athletic council for the year 1934-35 were Director of Athletics Gauthier, Professors Roberts, Manuel, Sanders, Husband and Conger, and student representatives Wertz and Talos.

COACHES...TRAINERS

The Physical Education Department contacts every student before he graduates. Ninety percent of Wesleyan men take part in intramural athletics alone. At the helm of the department is Prof. William F. Roberts—good-natured "Doc". He came to Ohio Wesleyan in 1921 from Cleveland Y.M.C.A., and is a Harvard graduate.

Walter C. Freeman, head of the Therapeutics Department, is a well-known physiotherapist, in addition to being an instructor of dancing and gymnasium classes.

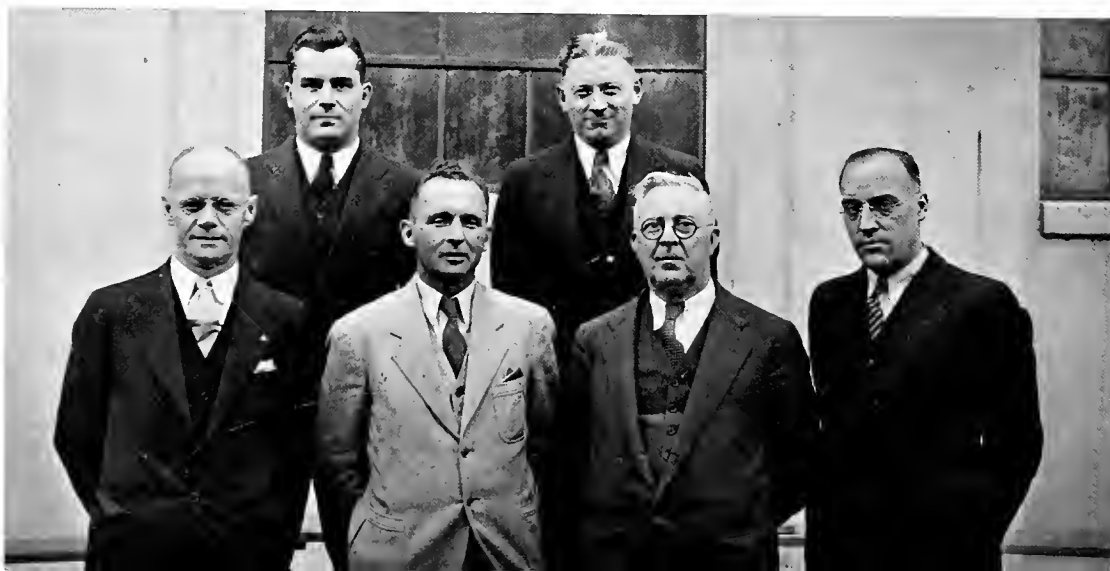

Director of Athletics and head football and track coach is George E. Gauthier, who also joined the faculty in 1921. He got his experience at Michigan State where he was quarterback.

Raymond O. Detrick completes his ninth and most successful year at Ohio Wesleyan. His current basketball team won 17 of 19 games, and was undefeated in Buckeye conference competition. "Dete" is also baseball and frosh football mentor. Frederick C. Mackey returned to the campus this year as line coach in football, and as the director of intramural athletics. He also tutored the freshman baseball candidates.

James MacDonald — "Mac" — continues to carry out efficiently the trainer's duties for all athletic teams.

CHEERLEADERS AND MANAGERS

1934-35 has been a banner year in Ohio Wesleyan athletics, and the cheerleaders and managers have contributed to this successful sports program. These men have given generously of their time and energy in aiding to promote enthusiasm and spirit at all athletic contests.

Students at Ohio Wesleyan, as everywhere, like a winner. This year they could support a winner, and did. Loyal under-graduates turned out in large numbers to root for teams that "rated" in the Buckeye conference. Dick Darrow was head cheerleader, assisted by Ronald Findlay, Justin Harris, Wilbert Port, Thomas Ward, Frederic Isaman and Jacob Fuller.

The managers' duties are manifold. They are to tend the equipment for the squads, prepare tracks, line courts and do numerous other things necessary for smooth-running sports. Senior managers arrange for trips, and are chosen from the ranks of five to ten men in each sport who begin the work as freshmen. Senior managers this year were: William McElray, football; Brooks Tippet, basketball; George Houck, track; John Shindoler, baseball; Francis Robinson, Henry Brown, Wilbur Kettell and Fleet Dillon.

FOOTBALL

- Winning seven of its nine contests, Wesleyan was one of the highest scoring teams in the nation, scoring 240 points. Keeping Selby's goal uncrossed, the Red and Black defeated Heidelberg, Wittenberg, Denison, and Ohio University. It was the Bishops' first win in six years over Ohio, and sweet revenge for the seniors who played their last game.

The loss of a hard fought game with Cincinnati forced the Battling Bishops to finish in second place in the Buckeye Conference. The only other loss was to the powerful Syracuse team. The Red and Black led for the most part of this game, but fourth-quarter substitutes were too much for the squad.

Twenty-seven players were awarded letters and the following were given All-Buckeye recognition: Turley, Mohler, White, Harley, Smith, Mills, and Overturf. Turley, given the Bun Trophy as most valuable player, was selected on the All-Ohio team and as fullback on the Associated Press "little All-American".

BASKETBALL

- "The greatest team ever to represent Ohio Wesleyan on the hardcourt" — that is Coach Detrick's post-season comment on the team which for the second successive year annexed the Buckeye conference title. This year's "Battling Bishops" became the first team in the history of the Buckeye to go through the league season without defeat.

The championship was not decided until the final home game of the season, when 3200 rooters watched Wesleyan trample over Cincinnati, 33-21, and keep its conference slate clean. The victory was especially sweet, for it evened matters after the football defeat at Cincinnati, robbing Wesleyan of Buckeye football laurels.

None of the men on the squad were more than six-three, and the team was at a disadvantage in height in almost every game. What the "Battling Bishops" lacked in size, however, they more than made up in deception and spirit. At the close of the season, Stämmler, Stark, Talos and McAdams were named on various all-conference teams, and Mewhort was given honorable mention.

VARSITY SWIMMING TEAM

The aquatic squad of this year was one of Ohio Wesleyan's most successful swimming teams in recent years. In the past season the squad won victories over Denison and Wittenberg; winning two meets during the season to their opponents nine. Eleven meets were held and some of the best teams in the state were on the Wesleyan schedule.

Post and Weigle were the high scorers for the Bishops and both will be back next year for more competition. Hubbard and Soper will be lost through graduation but prospects are good for a winning team next year with the presence on the freshman squad of several members who showed ability this year. They will be giving the varsity men a stiff battle next season. Hubbard was elected captain of the 1935 swimming team by the choice of his swimming mates. Members of the squad were Harbrecht, Hubbard, Patton, Post, Powell, Reynolds and Soper. Wyker was manager of the team.

INDOOR TRACK

Indoor track, although its schedule included only two dual meets, served Coach Gauthier with an excellent chance to get a line on his prospects for the outdoor season. One meet was lost to the strong Western State Teachers, 73 $\frac{1}{3}$ to 27 $\frac{2}{3}$, but the Bishops retaliated with a victory over Toledo University runners, 50 to 40. In both meets the Wesleyan men were without the services of Howard White, high scoring hurdler and broad-jumper, who injured his leg in the West Virginia Relays in February.

Ulrich, senior, and Harmon and Duncan, newcomers to the squad, divided the hurdling points among themselves. Matthews, Allen, and Sell in the dashes; Slade, Smith, Proctor, and Helms in the longer races; Recker, and Kent in the high jump; Hill in the pole vault; and Soper and Freshwater in the weight events were Wesleyan's most consistent point winners.

Kent, a junior letterman, pulled one of the season's big surprises when, with only a week's practice he tied for first place in the high jump in the Toledo meet at six feet.

Handicapped by the lack of qualified men in the weight and distance events, Wesleyan's 1934 track team took the outside lane in many meets. Unseasonal weather in the early part of the spring prevented the team's getting the proper outdoor training.

Wesleyan was host to the Buckeye Conference meeting for the first time in six years. The weather was ideal and a good crowd was in the stands to watch some of the outstanding track men in the middle-west. The meet was won by Miami, closely followed by Ohio U. Wesleyan was third, through the efforts of White and Ulrich who scored most of Wesleyan's points. White was individual high scorer for the second year in succession, and set a new Buckeye record in the broad jump and placed in the hurdles and dashes. Matthews, Leonard, Proctor, and Bump were also entered for the Red and Black.

With new talent in the field and weight events among the sophomores, Wesleyan can look forward to a better track season this spring.

The baseball season was successful in two ways: first we ended the season winning three games in a row, and second we defeated Ohio State in both encounters. The box scores do not give a true picture of the team because they do not show the improvement that the boys made during the year. The season started auspiciously with wins over Otterbein and State. Then the Buckeye got under way and the race was over before the Red and Black got started. Winning but one conference game, the cellar was Wesleyan's harbor.

The score of the final game of the year with Ohio State was eleven-all in the ninth. Hoff came to bat and with the count three and two, smacked out a home run scoring two men ahead of him. A real ending for three years of service to Wesleyan.

Prospects for this spring's "Detrick-coached" team seem much better, with many of the regulars returning and plenty of talent in the sophomore class.

TENNIS

The Bishop's tennis squad brought the 1934 athletic season to a close with the record of seven victories out of their nine game schedule, losing twice to the Western State Teachers team, one of the strongest in the country. The team won two matches from Denison, Otterbein, and Wittenberg; and defeated Xavier in its match.

A well-balanced team was responsible for the success. Although there were no outstanding stars, Coach Luikhart could always depend on the entire team. Those men awarded letters were: Smith, Stewart, Ward, Russert, Davis, and Slutz. A good crop of sophomore netters should contribute to an equally successful season this year.

Coach Gauthier was particularly pleased to see this group of Baby Bishops turn out for freshman football in that, during the last two years, graduation has taken a large toll of the Varsity squad.

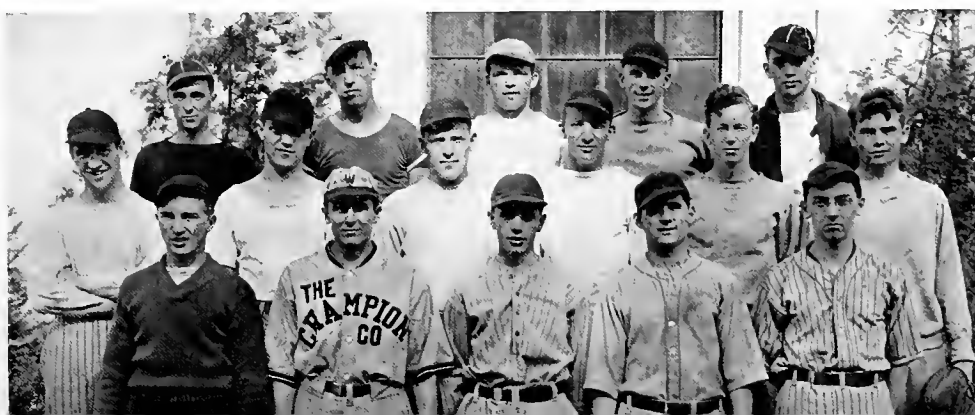

From a large squad of frosh basketball players Coach Detrick was able to pick out the following as probable Varsity material: Gage, McKinnie, Wells, Turner, Glancy, Tavenner, Schroeder, Zak, Davis, Myers, McCollister and Grosenberg.

Practice in the fundamentals of baseball, in-field practice, scrimmage among themselves and an occasional contest with the varsity squad was the workout for the freshman baseball squad. Coach Detrick found it necessary to cut the squad to fifteen players.

FRATERNITY

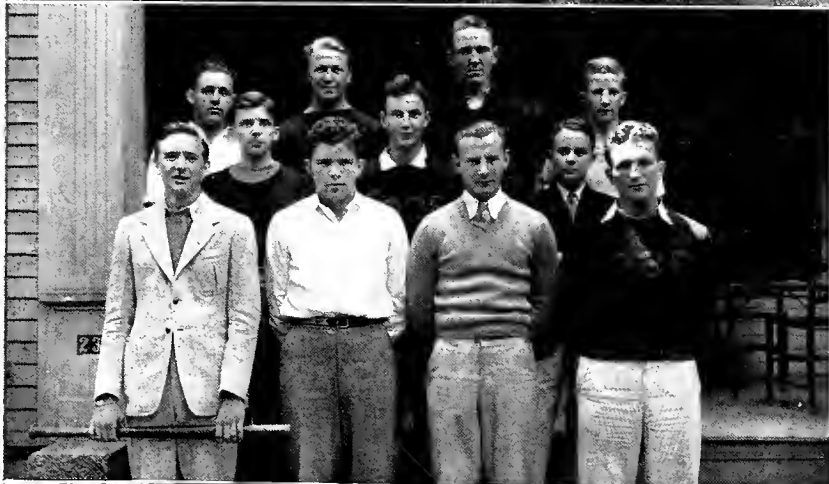

The Alpha Sigma Phi baseball team played their way to the University championship last spring by winning decisively in their final game. The competing fraternities had been placed in two leagues to simplify the program and create more interest. The Alpha Sigs had won in their league by defeating the team of Phi Gamma Delta. The Sig Alph team had likewise been victorious in their league and ended the season as runners-up. The games were held at South Field where as many as three games at a time could be played. The Sig Alphas were victorious over the Beta team in the final game of their league.

Spring volleyball supplements the other spring intramural activities and serves as a good opener and closer for the intramural sports program. The games have to be played on the various fraternity courts and this fact creates a home interest. The University volleyball championship was won by the Sigma Phi Epsilon team to close the intramural activities for the school year of 1934. This sport ended in a neighborhood battle in which the Sig Eps had to beat out both the Phi Delts and Alpha Sigs to win.

One of the most enjoyable of the inter-greek activities is the Interfraternity Sing which is held every spring. This activity comes as the culmination of an extensive period of training and practicing on the part of the groups who participate. The Phi Delts, winners of the previous year, lost this past year to the Alpha Sigs who proved their superior ability in vocal gymnastics at Sanborn Hall before an enthusiastic audience. Phi Mu Alpha sponsors the contest and gives the trophy to the winners.

INTRAMURALS

The two pictures in the top of this panel are the students who hold down the responsibility for the entire intramural program. They are the senior men who have survived four years of hard work in trying to keep the Greek warriors from slitting one another's throat by other than fair means. Herschel Jones is on the left and his companion is Gilbert Armstrong.

The football competition this year was the keenest for a number of years. Although there had been only three leagues, the season ended with five teams still struggling for the championship. After elimination the Phi Gamma Delta team emerged from the fray with the fewest disabilities and were subsequently titled "champs".

There was little doubt as to the outcome of the fall tennis matches until the time was reached for the final match. Both of the teams in the semi-finals had won very handily from all opposition which faced them. Going into the semi-final round, the Sig Eps were paired with the Delta Taus, while the Phi Deltas engaged the Phi Gams. The finals brought together the teams of Sigma Phi Epsilon and Phi Delta Theta. This match ended with the Sig Ep team on the long end of the score, making them University champions, while the Phi Deltas became runners-up.

Over 500 men signed up to enter the handball competition in singles or doubles. Tom Steckel and Bill O'Neal, S.A.E.'s, defeated Bill Bantz and Gardner Allen, A.T.O.'s, last year's champs, for the doubles title. Steckel won over Bantz for the singles championship.

The cross-country meet always attracts many more entrants than finishers. This was of small wonder this year because of the fast pace set by the winner, Ralph Hoke, who covered an approximate two-mile course in seven minutes and 43 seconds.

The group of fellows at the bottom of the page is the intramural executive staff. It is their duty to make the necessary rules, to officiate at games, keep scores, and keep records of every interfraternity sports activity for the year.

Touch football offered rather insistent rebuffs to the Kappa Sig gridders, but eventually they came out as runners-up to the Phi Gams. Because of a three way tie the Kappa Sigs survived a playoff in their league before becoming eligible for the finals.

Intramural boxing this year was as attractive as ever to the university's pugilists. From a large participating field Sumerville, 115 lb. class; Sigmier, 125 lb.; Glancy, 165 lb.; Overturf, heavy; Schroeder, 175 lb.; Carson, 135 lb.; and Morgan, 145 and 155 lb. (not in picture) hung up their gloves with smiles of satisfaction.

The Sigma Chi's defended their basketball championship of last year against the Phi Psi class B quintet. Members of the winning squad are Huth, Mohler, Roberts, Dunham, Lani-gan, Sell, and Wertz.

In the horseshoe tournament last spring Charles Bucher and Andy Kennard rung up a championship, thereby taking the "barnyard golfer" title from the Tekes who had held it for two preceding years.

Successfully meeting all opponents John Heinlen and Ed Hagaman, Betas, last spring annexed the golf doubles championship.

This year Chuck Jones won the golf singles contest when he defeated Dave Jackson.

The freshman swimming meet was easily won by the Phi Gam squad of Ray Kent, Bill Bootes, Bob Kyle, and Don Freshwater. The Beta team swam second.

In the upper left hand picture is the volleyball team of Phi Delta Theta, who successfully overcame all their opponents to win the University championship for the second year.

Below them is the squad who were runners-up. The Tekes lost to the Phi Deltas in the championship fray in three close games.

The other two upper pictures are of the winning fraternity bowling teams. Beta Theta Pi met Alpha Tau Omega in the finals and defeated them to acquire the winning trophy. Alpha Tau Omega had won in their league to earn the right to compete for the championship.

The Delta Tau Delta fraternity showed real fight when they entered the cross-country meet 100'. This partially explains why they were so successful. Both the upperclassmen and the frosh came through to triumph and completely out-class other competing teams.

The upperclass swimming team of Beta Theta Pi again found easy victory in the interfraternity swimming meet. With the winners of both divisions of last year combined in one team they had little trouble in annexing the trophy.

As a new intramural activity this year, ping-pong found ready access to the program. The interest in this new field was very keen. The singles championship, following pre-season predictions, was won by George Sturgiss, Phi Kappa Tau, who at the present time holds the state title in ping-pong singles.

The doubles games were more closely contested and commanded greater interest. Glen Stover and Art Thomas of Phi Delta Theta came through to win the championship over Sturgiss and Albright.

After many exciting evenings in Edward's Gymnasium, the following boys survived the elimination wrestling tournament to become champions of their respective classes. They were: Paul Riffle, 125 lbs.; Bill Carson, 135 lbs.; Dick Palmer, 145 lbs.; Hal Miller, 155 lbs.; Al Wyker, 165 lbs.; Charles Edgerton, 175 lbs.; Ray Overturf, heavy.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Through its sports program the Women's Athletic Association purports to stimulate interest and extensive participation in all forms of wholesome recreational activities. In the fall interclass hockey creates a good bit of excitement, while inter-sorority volleyball, bowling, and basketball in mid-year and baseball and tennis in the spring provide further rivalry. Its social calendar includes such projects as a party for all freshmen women, a pie feast, a kid party, hamburg fry, and a spring banquet.

Membership in the organization is of two types, active and associate. To become an active member a girl must participate in one seasonal sport. Associate members are those who have paid the budget fee but who have not taken active part in the program of the association. Carolyn Brogan is retiring president of the executive board of the organization.

The Swimmers' Club offers unusual opportunity for those girls interested in aquatic activities to give vent to their enthusiasm. From September to June the swimming pool in Edwards gymnasium is the scene of the varied activities of this organization.

Membership is open to any girl who can pass the entrance tests rating her on her ability in swimming, diving, and life-saving. The club helps the girls improve their marine maneuvers and provides instruction in life-saving and water games. Thus the organization gives both an educational and a recreational outlet for its members.

The projects undertaken by this group include the sponsoring of an intersorority swimming meet and splash parties. On occasions Mr. Goss, the national Red Cross life saving inspector, visits Delaware to give tests to the candidates for the rank of examiner. Edna Lee Treat was president of the club this year.

The freshman girls enjoyed a big season in basketball. The winning freshman team, captained by Eleanore Bale, walked off with the competition by defeating a sophomore team, a combined team of juniors and seniors, and finally on a forfeit from another freshman girl's team.

The girls bowling teams were divided into a nine o'clock and a ten o'clock league. The Kappa team overcame the Alpha Xi's and Alpha Delta Pi's to win the championship of the ten o'clock league, which entitled them to meet the Gamma Phi Betas, winners in the other group. The Kappa's won the final match and gained possession of the trophy.

The Kappa Delt's won their way into the basketball finals by virtue of their win over the Alpha Gam's. In their last match of the year though, the competition was too severe and they lost to the Theta team, which gave them runner's-up honors.

Through a queer turn of fate the Phi Mu's received the volleyball trophy. Winning three out of their season's four games, their only loss was to a team of Independent women. This rightfully gave the trophy to the Independents, but because of a ruling connected with the trophy it must go to a sorority group. Thus because of their ability and fate the Phi Mu's are now the possessors of the cup.

Runners-up in the intersorority volleyball contest this year, the Kappa Delt's displayed fine playing spirit in the final deciding game with the Phi Mu sextet but not quite enough playing ability. Thus, they finished in second position.

INTRAMURALS

Kappa Alpha Theta with Eleanor Bale as captain carried off the honors in the women's intramural basketball tournament held in February and March. Runners-up in the contest were the Kappa Delts and the non-sorority team. The twelve teams were divided into three leagues with the winner in each playing to determine the champion.

A swimming team of five took fourth in a meet held at the University of Cincinnati on March 16. The meet consisted of a 20-yard dash free style, side stroke for form, 60-yard medley relay with 20 yards each of breast stroke, crawl, and side stroke, and diving. The team competed with seven other Ohio colleges.

The women's bowling team defeated the University of Wisconsin in a telegraphic match, 1476-1351, played on February 16. Ruth Landers averaging 154 was high scorer for the winners. Other team members were Kathryn Knappenberger, Anne Gross, Virginia Erwin, and Mary Jane Hoover.

A successful hockey season ended with a pie feast honoring the winning Austin team composed of Mary Rickey, captain; J. Rickey, Minsker, Eggleston, Anderson, Bush, Ross, and Brogan. Mary Monroe was captain of Stuyvesant team; Molly Lacy, of Monnett. A match by two picked teams featured Dad's Day. Nancy Badley managed all games.

C O - E D

The purpose of the Sports Day held May 12, 1934 was to bring together a group of men and women to participate in a variety of activities for play's sake; to demonstrate in a social way the activities of a season's intramural program to the parents and friends of Ohio Wesleyan students; to furnish opportunity for the development of qualities of leadership to those assisting on committees; and to foster a spirit of co-operation and understanding among the students.

For the past seven years, Field Day has been a feature of Monnett weekend. Last year at the suggestion of Coach Gauthier an attempt was made to incorporate a program for men as well as one for the women. Hence, "Field Day" was changed to "Co-ed Sport Day". Heretofore the competition was on the basis of fraternities and sororities, but the new program was organized on the basis of color teams. There were four color teams having approximately the same numbers, determined by the replies to letters sent to groups on the campus. The green team was supported by members of Phi Delta Theta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Beta Theta Pi, Pi Phi, and Delta Gamma; while those of Phi Gamma Delta, Gamma Phi Beta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Alpha Xi Delta, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Delta Pi, Phi Mu, and Zeta Tau Alpha claimed yellow ribbons.

S P O R T D A Y

Fighting for the blue color team were representatives of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Sigma Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, Kappa Delta, Delta Zeta, and Theta Upsilon. Red ribbons were pinned on those of Chi Omega, Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Sigma Kappa, and the Ohio Wesleyan Union. All in all about ninety men and one hundred women participated. There were numerous events offered for competition among men, women, and teams composed of both. For girl participation there was archery, high jump, broad jump, and hop-skip jump. The big participation was for teams of both men and women. Here were found volleyball and baseball teams, tennis, baseball throw, and such relays as cap transfer, shuttle, 220-yard baton, jump rope, and line-up.

After a strenuous morning the green team was announced as the winners, having accumulated 37 points. Next in order was the blue team, 32 points; red team, 31 points; and the yellow team, 21 points. The first Co-ed Sport Day was very much of a success in spite of the fact that the participation was not as large as anticipated. It did, however, attain its goal in achieving a spirit of "play for play's sake".

Mr. H. H. Humphries
Humphries Motor Sales
27 W. William Street
Delaware, Ohio

Dear Mr. Humphries:

I want to tell you how much I have enjoyed the FORD V8 I purchased last October. I have used it on a great many trips where I have carried members of the football and basketball teams, and it has always given us good team work.

Your FORD V8 has performed like a highly trained athlete. It is smooth running, full of pep and has lots of power there to use when you want to put on a sprint.

The thing I like about the FORD V8 is the ease in driving, it runs like a trained athlete, effortless, it is always in good condition for a hard grind and has sprinting speed and "guts" for tough going.

Very truly yours,

G. E. Gauthier

Director of Athletics

Lovely to Look At

Year after year there roll through our many presses the interesting records of countless college lives as portrayed in annuals such as this beautiful LE BIJOU. . . . This LE BIJOU must out-live all contemporary publications. Preserved for the eyes of your children and grandchildren, it should and does embody the highest form of printing craftsmanship of its day.

When you look at your LE BIJOU throughout your life, it will have a fascination not only for the memories it revives, but because its artistic execution has earned this LE BIJOU long life as a thing of beauty. . . A part of that enduring quality is the careful and talented attention given to its production by a company noted for nearly half a century for fine printing.

Mr. E.R. Adler,
Canton Engraving & Electrotypes Co.,
Canton, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Adler,

What do I think of the Canton Engraving Company? To tell the favor with which I regard your firm would seem more like a fairy tale than the frank confession of an editor. Instead, the circumstances under which the contract was signed last spring tell the story much better.

At that time I went through the usual siege of conferences and at the end of them I was more confused than when I had begun. Some of the firms came down with complete dummy layouts, ideas which would have carried the book from cover to cover. Canton offered its regular staff of specialized men. They had no definite plan but gave me their promise that whatever I desired in the way of a yearbook, they could and would produce. They had evidence of their layout service, their artistry opportunities, and production facilities. I looked over the record of the past three Bijous which Canton had produced and found the most original books from the standpoint of these three, and the quality of engravings of any of the samples I had seen. This combined with the recommendation of our business adviser, a member of the faculty who had watched the production and service of these books was enough to satisfy me. I signed Canton.

Since that time I have had nothing but the utmost in cooperation from your organization. We worked out the details of the book and had a completed dummy before the opening of school. We have thus managed to set a new record for picture and engraving schedules. No staff can do this without absolute confidence in its engraver. I would highly recommend the "Canton Course" as one of the prerequisites to a successful yearbook, as I hope the 1935 Bijou will be.

Very Sincerely,

Clarke Fauder

IN APPRECIATION

All good things must come to an end sometime, and so after two years of almost constant effort, I am about to write "finis" to the 1935 Bijou. To edit this book had been an aim of mine since my senior year in High School, and now that it is over, I retire with pleasant memories to a normal life.

Before I do end the year, and in order to clear my own conscience, I should like to express my sincere appreciation and gratitude to the following people who helped to make the task easier:

THE CANTON ENGRAVING AND ELECTROTYPE CO, and especially to Phil Linne, Ralph Hitchcock, and E. R. Adler for their wonderful cooperation. If anyone can make the publishing of an annual easier, it is this group of men.

THE GRAY PRINTING CO. and Mr. Lester Kisabeth for their fine handling of the technical side of the book. A well planned and engraved book is lost, except for the work of a good printer.

THE MUELLER ART COVER CO. for an extensive and thorough research to satisfy my demands for a different cover, and also for an excellent piece of binding necessary to preserve it for posterity.

RUTH POLLEY AND PROFESSOR GEORGE HULL who were such a great help in filling the vacancy left by Cecil Hill, business manager, during the second semester.

And lastly, but far from the least important, to my parents and Betty for their patience to put up with every possible sort of an inconvenience and from time to time a discouraged and grouchy editor. I hope the culmination of this work is in some measure a reward to them.

Very sincerely,
